Foreword

We, the Senior class of 1953, feel that our four years of experiences at M. H. S. have been a great influence in our lives. These years have been filled with memories that will linger forever in our minds. We have tried to collect in this book many of the happy moments we have shared together at M. H. S., and we hope that in future years it will bring back to us memories of these past events.

In Dedication to--

We, the senior class, dedicate with sincere esteem this, our 1953 ECHO, to Mrs. Margaret Garrett. Her unselfish and loyal devotion to the interest of the students has contributed materially to the happy spirit that is characteristic of our school.

Richard, it has been nice working with you these past 5 years. Don't let anything keep you from carrying out your present plans.
Best wishes to a nice person.
Margaret Garrett

In Honor of--

It is with much pride that we, the Echo Staff, present our 1953 edition of the Echo in honor of Mrs. Janet Gee Tolley. Mrs. Tolley has added much to the school through her musical ability and her willingness to help with our activities. Her sweet disposition and optimistic outlook on life are qualities that we all admire.

Thus, we deem it a high privilege to honor Mrs. Tolley.

Prophecy

I looked into the future
 as far as I could see,
 And there I saw the rest of the world
 And the remains of the class of '53!

The other day some friends and I were talking about what we were going to do in the future, and we were wondering what we would be doing twenty years from now. So I went to see a professional seer and asked him if he would look into the future and see what it holds for us twenty odd seniors. Instead, he sent me into a trance and this is what I beheld of the class of 1953.

This is what you will find the remains of the class of '53 doing on June 1, 1973.

Richard Turpin, the "super-safe" bus driver, who spent 15 years trying to invent bus seats that would fold into the wall with the pupil inside has recently returned to the Western Hospital for the insane.

Bobby Garrett, whose one desire was to become a Hot Rod driver, is now running Garrett's grocery. On Sunday Bobby goes to the races at Starkey as an ardent spectator.

Minnie Robinson, who desired to replace Marilyn Monroe in the movies, is now assistant professor of philosophy at William and Mary College.

Jane Aldridge is now a famous Home Economics teacher and is very much in demand as an after dinner speaker. Her favorite topic is the fundamentals of scrubbing floors.

Colleen Hartberger, who wanted to become a singer with a Hillbilly Band, is now recuperating from laryngitis from hollering at her seven children. Her husband is owner of an Earphone Repair Shop.

Ray Johnson, whose ambition in high school was to become an instructor on "How to Sleep," is now president of Johnson, Johnson & Johnson's Orchards. He supervises the graveyard shift.

Luther Draper just returned from a world tour with his famous band known as "The Draper Scruggs-Ramblers;" his latest recording, "Roxy Special," has sold over 2 million copies.

James McCabe, who planned to become a surgeon after studying abroad, is a successful farmer and a cow doctor on the side.

Miss Nellie Hutchins, who didn't want to die an old maid, is working for Johnson's Orchards. She is secretary in charge of "Bug-Riddance."

Mary Hoylman, who wanted to become a star newspaper columnist, has just been appointed the President's personal reporter.

Laura Graham, who dreamed of a successful career as a journalist, is still single, and has been promoted to Assistant Manager of Barr-Topham 5 & 10 in Bedford.

Pattie Boggess, who just wanted to become a successful housewife, was recently married for the eighth time. Says Pattie, "I can't stand being lonely."

Ruth Morgan, who turned down a married life for a career, has been named to run for the Presidency of the U.S. on the "Feminatic" ticket. She is the first woman to try.

Gloria Gross, the famed screen and TV star, is making a movie of her life entitled "Gloria's Glory."

Tommy Berry, a second Nathan Hale, who longed to give his one life for his country, is a corporal in the Infantry and permanently in charge of K.P. at Camp Pickett.

Robert Hartberger is now a billionaire industrial architect, and has recently returned from Peru where he is in charge of a project which he claims, when finished, will change ocean water into oil.

Arlene Johnson, who wanted to become rich, has recently entered the "Old Folk's Home."

Jimmy Garrett, a self-styled business tycoon, who dropped a half million in a wildcat company known as Garrett Cons. Co. Limited of the Goose Creek Valley, is a linesman for Cofer Cons. Co.

Bucky Hamm, who thought he could become an Electrical Engineer, is a professional wrestler; in his spare time he has taken Mr. McKee's job as fire warden.

Ellen Evans, the efficient editor of the Echo, is now owner of the "Jot Em' Down Store" in Union.

Jeanette Turpin, who received an early start with married life is now a widow and a Wall Street millionaire.

Cecil Dunbar, who joined our class late in our senior school year, has fulfilled his ambition to be a farmer and has recently bought the famed Circled K Ranch. In his spare time, Cecil is a professor of horticulture at VPI.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Seniors of '53 of Montvale High School, having been of sound mind and memory for five years, but who are about to lose both do now make public and declare our last will and testament as follows:

To the Juniors we leave Miss Rayburn. Watch out for her study hall bulletins.

To the sophomores we leave our quiet, dignified ways. (Even though they didn't show.)

To the freshmen we leave our grades. You have four years to improve them.

To the eighth grade we leave five years to get better acquainted with Miss Rayburn.

To all the teachers we leave our talents that never showed in our classes.

I, Jane Aldridge, will my giggles to Nellie Bowyer.

I, Tommy Berry, will my teeth to anyone who "gets up when told to shut up."

I, Pattie Boggess, leave my love for "Bobby's" to Ellen McFarland.

I, Luther Draper, will my "Toni" to Joy Falls.

I, Cecil Dunbar, leave my love for West Virginia to Bobby Humphreys.

I, Ellen Evans, leave my sympathy to the next "Echo" editor.

I, Bobby Garrett, leave my position on the basketball team to Bobby Humphreys.

I, Jimmy Garrett, leave.

I, Laura Graham, will my slimness to Janice Luck.

We, Gloria Gross and Nellie Hutchens, leave our study hall secrets to Mary Sue Roudabush. (Will they remain secrets?)

I, Bucky Hamm, leave my love for mountain climbing and fire fighting to Mr. McKee.

We, Colleen Hartberger and Jeanette Jones, will our chewing gum to anyone brave enough to enter Mrs. Gordon's classes with it.

I, Robert Hartberger, will my love for cradle robbing to anybody that can do something with it.

I, Mary Hoylman, will my West Virginia "lingo" to Lucy Burkholder.

I, Arlene Johnson, leave my ability to turn cart-wheels to Willie Rose.

I, Ray Johnson, will part of my height to Buddy Bowyer.

We, Don McAfee and Iva Mae Forgie, leave our advanced standings to Elmandine Watson and Harvey Crouch.

I, James McCabe, leave my part as "Snowball" to anyone who can do as well.

I, Ruth Morgan, leave my love for the week-ends to Lois Kirby. I hope she enjoys them as much as I did.

I, Minnie Robinson, will my quiet ways to Doris Catron and Tommy Holdren. (I hope they use them.)

I, Richard Turpin, will the bus to someone who won't have flat tires the first day of exams.

1953 of Montvale High School

Class History

It seems almost impossible that we—the graduating class of 1953—could have once been a class of green freshmen, with nothing but nonsense and foolishness in our minds.

In September 1949 a bewildered group of boys and girls, searching for higher learning, ascended the steps of Montvale High School. After getting into the swing of things and getting that fearful "Rat Day" over, we elected as our class officers: president, Rebecca Brown; vice-president, Don McAfee; secretary, Laura Graham; treasurer, Bobby Garrett; and reporter, Gloria Gross. We had as our sponsors Mr. K. E. Coffman and Miss Julia Foster.

At the end of the semester, a strange, new experience faced us—examinations. The morning of our first examination we came to school with our heads in a whirl. Frantically, we tried to find the answers to questions a minute before exams were called. What is an adverb? What are personal pronouns? These and many other questions were heard as we prepared to face the new ordeal. However, most of us came through successfully; but a few were unable to join us the next year when we became freshmen.

Now was the time for our revenge, and we promptly turned the eighth graders into "Rats." This gave us a feeling of superiority; however, along our own paths still lurked the fearful monsters of algebra, biology, and dates of history. At times discouragement overcame us, but at length by the help and advice of our leaders—president, Don McAfee; vice-president, Bobby Garrett; secretary and treasurer, Betty Thomas; reporter, Tommy Berry; and sponsor, Miss Margaret Walker—we freed ourselves and emerged in safety.

The next year we returned to M.H.S. as proud sophomores. This was our year for work. Since there were no juniors, due to the five year program which was added, we had the hard work and fun of giving the "Sophomore-Senior Banquet," with "Gypsy Caravan" as our theme. As our leaders this year we had: president, Betty Thomas; vice-president, Bobby Garrett; secretary and treasurer, Laura Graham; reporter, Jimmy Garrett; and sponsor, Miss Virginia Anderson.

The next fall we appeared as dignified juniors, the highest class, since there were no seniors. We worked hard to achieve our standing and as our officers for this year we had: president, Don McAfee; vice-president, Robert Hartberger; secretary and treasurer, Laura Graham; reporter, Richard Turpin; and sponsor, Miss Wilma Rayburn.

When our senior year began, our class had decreased to only 24 members. As we started the last lap of our journey, we were determined to work hard to achieve our goal—graduation. As our senior officers we had Ray Johnson, president; Richard Turpin, vice-president; Ellen Evans, secretary and treasurer; Robert Hartberger, reporter; and sponsor, Miss Wilma Rayburn.

Our senior year, filled with memories of the Minstrel, the Play and the Junior-Senior Banquet when WE were the honored guests, sped by so quickly that almost before we knew it, the eventful day of graduation came. As we stood at the end of our course, it seemed sadder than we had expected—and different somehow; for we realized that our journey had not ended, but only begun; and though each of us may travel in a different direction, our minds will forever wander back to the familiar halls and faces and our happy days at M.H.S.

Senior Personalities

TOMMY BERRY: Full of life and always ready to go--that's Tommy. He is a good sport and a very good basketball player. He is happiest when teasing someone or when talking to girls. He has a particular bent for arguing and for a certain junior girl.

LUTHER DRAPER: Luther is our tall, red-headed senior. He is neat and well-mannered. Luther likes to sing and play the guitar.

JIMMY GARRETT: "Happy-go-lucky" Jimmy has an "eye for the gals." He is noted for his pretty hair and his wonderful sense of humor. He is one of the most mischievous members of the senior class.

BOBBY GARRETT: The senior class wouldn't have been complete without Bobby. He is athletic, as well as very studious, and is one of the outstanding members of our class of '53.

BUCKY HAMM: Different, well-liked and dependable--these are only a few adjectives which describe Buck. He is noted for his mischievous way and his ability to imitate people.

ROBERT HARTBERGER: The handsome red-head of our class, Robert, is forever thinking up pranks to play on some innocent victim. He is honest, dependable, courteous and one of the most popular boys at M.H.S. There's never a dull moment when Robert's around. We are sure he will lead a successful life with this dynamic personality of his.

RAY JOHNSON: Ray is one of our favorite seniors because he always breaks up our serious moments with some of his crazy remarks. He is dependable, well-mannered, and oh-yes-he was chosen "king" of the senior class.

DON McAFEE: Don is popular, neat and very talented. He is also one of our brilliant students. He has a way to get along well with everyone. We are sure he will make a great hit in life.

JAMES McCABE: Carefree and likeable, James has a friendly smile for everyone. With his politeness and easy-going personality, he has gained many friends. Possessed with a love for talking, he always finds an answer for every question.

RICHARD TURPIN: Tall, blonde, polite, and studious--that's Richard. He is very dependable and always willing to help. Richard is everybody's friend.

Senior Personalities

JANE ALDRIDGE: Jane has pleasing ways and is liked by everyone. She is very co-operative and never has a cross word for anyone. We wish her the best of luck in years to come.

PATTY BOGGESS: Patty is attractive, well-mannered and quiet. She is always seen with Bobby. Patty is noted for her cheerleading ability.

ELLEN EVANS: Ellen is one of our sweetest senior girls. She is studious, capable and neat. She has a pleasing personality and is well-liked by everyone.

IVA MAE FORGIE: Jolly, fun loving, and giggling, that's our Iva. Iva has won many friends at M. H. S. and we know she will make a success as a nurse.

LAURA GRAHAM: Possessing such qualities as honesty, attractiveness, unselfishness and sincerity, along with a pleasing personality, Laura, is one of our most popular senior girls.

GLORIA GROSS: Well-groomed, attractive, and good-natured--that's Bobbie. She always greets everyone with a friendly hello. With her attractive ways and loveable personality, she has gathered a host of friends at Montvale High.

COLLEEN HARTBERGER: Colleen is quiet but, when asked to do something, is always ready and willing. Her many friends will remember her as a pleasant friend.

MARY F. HOYLMAN: Witty and "a little on the talkative side," Mary is never without a friendly smile and a kind hello.

NELLIE HUTCHENS: Having won the title of the prettiest girl in the senior class, Nellie is our blonde who is always smiling. With her sunny disposition and charming personality how could we forget "Nell"?

ARLENE JOHNSON: "Lena" has a sweet disposition and always a giggle or a grin. She is an excellent student and is always willing to lend a hand.

RUTH MORGAN: With sparkling eyes and glossy hair, She and a black haired boy make a good pair, Ruth is kind and friendly to everyone, and always joking and full of fun.

MINNIE ROBINSON: Minnie is known as our quiet, but likeable girl. She is shy but has many friends and gets along well with everyone.

JEANETTE TURPIN JONES: Jeanette is one of our "blondes". She has a swell personality, although it comes in a small package. Jeanette is our married senior.

CECIL DUNBAR: Cecil is the senior who joined our class late in January. He was transferred from West Virginia. He is a very likeable boy. Although he is quiet, he has gained many friends since he joined our class.

Another Step Forward

This year, nineteen-hundred and fifty-three, finds many of you graduating and others moving up to take your place as next years graduates.

Through the commendable efforts of the teachers of our great America, you face the world of tomorrow with greater confidence and ability, capable of taking your place with your fellow citizens.

We at USECO are most happy to have played a part in recording your treasured memories of 1953 and have utilized every skill at our command to present you with a book you'll cherish through the years.

May we all feel justly proud of our accomplishments and remember them as, "Another Step Forward!"
